KEY CONCEPTS FOR INNOVATION DEVELOPMENT AND KNOWLEDGE TRANSFER:

- Centrality of business needs (concrete idea)
- Innovation as a central and transversal thopic (transition to sustainable agriculture)
- Interactive and equal partnerships for knowledge and innovation (bottom up approach)
- Integrated projects (facilitating impact and transferring innovation)
- Innovation transfer as the main indicator of system success
- Results monitoring (evaluating the effectiveness of the tools used)
- Importance of communication in the process of transferring innovation (dissemination to spread innovation)

THE NEW PAC 2021-2027 ON THE EC PROPOSAL

1/5

The European Commission's proposal for the new multiannual financial framework 2021-2027 outlines the budget framework and the main orientations for the CAP. On 1 June 2018, the Commission also presented a package of regulations bearing the legislative framework of the CAP 2021-2027.

Main changes in the European Commission's post-2020 regulation proposal:

- Combine the actual first and second pillar interventions through the definition, by each Member State, of a single "Strategic Plan" for the CAP. This "New Delivery Model" (NDM) requires that Member States develop a single plan at national level.
- Commission will be more alert to the constant monitoring of progress and the achievement of the results, rather than to the supervision of the regulatory provisions.
